
Fr. McGirr (Please use an Irish accent.)

Please read or memorize for your audition script video in your casting application for Saint Luke Productions.
(Either is acceptable, but memorization is very helpful.)

- 1) My brethren, let me ask you a question. Did Jesus, our Saviour, die for just a few people? Did He only die for those in Israel? Just the Irish? NO! He died for all, every single human being. I do not know if you understand that no matter who you are, what you have, or are doing right now, Jesus died for you. He died in your place, for your benefit. Let me assure all outsiders here, especially our Colored families here present: Christ died for you and you are one with Him and one with the Church, which He founded. We are Catholic, which means “universal.” All people....All those who love us, love us. And those that don’t love us, May God turn their hearts. And if He doesn’t turn their hearts, may He turn their ankles so we’ll know them by their limping.
- 2) (Pacing) Hah, for the love of God, another letter from the Bishop. I don’t think this is going anywhere. I have already written all the seminaries in the country. Augustus is one in a million. He is a great candidate for the priesthood. Better than I. Sound of mind and body, pious, intelligent, pure of heart. These heads of seminaries don’t appreciate the caliber of this young man. “Regrets,” “regrets”....(angry and throws all the letters down from his hands) The God of us all is still the boss!

Thanks again for taking the time to prepare these pieces. We pray that it will be a contemplative spiritual experience for you to perform them for this audition.
